FOUND NO CHARM

IN BLACK CAT'S EAR Unsophisticated Pole Had No Better Luck with a Magic Bean.

Chicago, Dec. I.—George A. Papau-sky, the Polish banker-conjurer, re-cently released from the house of cor-rection, where he was sent by Judge Landis to serve a six months' sen-tence for selling invisibility ointments and love charms, was arrested again tonight. Papausky sold Anton Lokotonight. Papausky sold ahron Loac-ritz, a fellow countryman, a black cat's ear to make him invisible. Lok-oritz gladly paid $25 for the charm and put the ear, according to direc-tions, in his left waistcoat pocket. Confident in his invisibility, Loko-ritz then entered a saloon with the proprietor of which he was not on friendly terms. Making sure the charm was in place, he stepped behind the bar and began to help himself to bot-tled goods. The bartender immediate-ly fell on Lokoritz and hustled him into the street.

Lokoritz went to Papausky's house, thinking that something must be amiss. He did not see the conjurer, but was met by a woman, who told him he had to have a magic bean to go with the cat's ear. Lokoritz bought a bean and returned to the saloon and went behind the bar again. The bartender ejected him more energetically than before. He had several bruises to show the police when he made his complaint.

Wife and Son of Murdered Farmer Also Accused-Was at First Thought to Be a Case of Suicide.

Houiton, Me., Dec. 1.—Efforts to solve a complicated arder mystery will be made here this week when Rev. Charles Emelius, a minister of the Lutheran church, Mrs. Mary Jacobson, his mother-in-law, and the latter's son, Edgar J. Jacobson, of New Sweden, will be placed on trial in the supreme court of Aroestook county for the murder of August Jacobson, a prosperous New Sweden farmer, on June 11, 1914. June 11, 1914.

Minister Changed His Name Rev. Charles Emelius, one of the de-endants, was paster of the Lutherar church at New Sweden at the time of the crime. It is said that he is a na-tive of Greenleaf township in Meeker county, Minn., and that while his fa-ther is Thomas Nelson, the young man changed his name upon entering the ministry, saying that Nelson was too common. A few months after the death of Jacobson, Emelius married Jacobson's daughter, Mrs. Belle Gabriwho had been a widow only

MUCH TO BE DONE AT THE SHORT SESSION.

APPROPRIATION BILLS

Fifteen to Be Passed Total $1,000,000,-000-Possible Inquiry Into New Haven-Grand Trunk Agreement.

Washington, Dec. 1.—The expiring sixty-second congress will assemble at noon tomorrow for its final work of legislation. In the brief period remaining before constitutional limitations bring it to an end, and turn many of its members back into private life, 15 appropriation bills, carrying over one billion dollars for the support of the government, must be passed; the impeachment of Judge Archbold of the commerce court must be tried in the senate; many investigating committees must conclude inquiries and make their reports, and scores of legislative matters must be disposed of.

Preliminaries to Extra Session.

Throughout the session, attracting as much attention as the actual work of legislation, will run the preparatory work for the extra session to be called soon after President-elect Wilson takes office, March 4. Committees pursuant to this will thresh out questions of tariff, currency and anti-trust legislation, in the effort to have democratic collected and democratic collectes aband and democratic collectes aband and democratic cratic policies shaped and democratic plans made before the new adminis-tration comes into power.

No Tariff Legislation.

It is assured, say the legislative leaders, that there will be no tariff, legislation this winter, 4 Neither is it expected that the currency or antirust problems will receive much attention within the house or senate, principal work of the session being confined to preparation for the democratic administration and the enactment of some of the more important bills pending on the calendars of the two houses.

Bills Ready for Action.

Important bills to receive attention nelude the bill for a department of labor, which Senstor Borah said today would be presented for immed-inte action: the Sheppard-Kenyon bill preventing shipments of liquor into "dry" states; the Page bill to give fed-eral aid to vocational and agricultural schools and the resolution for a constitutional amendment limiting a prea-ident to a single term of six years. These measures have all been debated before both houses, and have reached the point where action of some kind upon them is expected.

Taft's Message Tuesday. With the opening of the seasion less than 24 hours away, the halls of the capitel and its adjoining office buildings presented a deserted appearance today. Members have been slow in reaching the capitol and little interest ity. The annual estimates for appro-priations are ready and will be sent to the house tomorrow noon. President Taft's message, also ready, will be brought in the following day, with some of his recommendations for the New England Railroad Situation.

Several new inquiries are in prospect in the house for the short sea-sion. The judiciary committee will begin an inquiry into anti-trust prob-lems about Christmas time, with the hope that some amendments to the anti-trust law can be recommended before congress adjourns. Either the judiciary committee or the "money trust" committee will also be asked, it is believed, to investigate the New England railroad situation to deter-mine what relations, if any, exist be-tween the Grand Trunk and the New
